They came over for dinner and all was well until my wife's younger brother (age 11) carries our nine month onto the couch walking away right after leaving our son unattended.

The Hidden Beauty of a Bad Sermon

Young preachers, new preachers, preach bad sermons. They preach bad sermons as they learn to preach good sermons. And in some ways, those bad sermons serve as a mark of a church’s health and strength because they prove that the church is fulfilling its mandate to raise up the next generation of preachers and the one after that.

In-Law Relationships. If one spouse is blaming the in-laws for a disagreement the couple is experiencing, that should be dealt with, too. If you've become engaged in a quiet (or not so quiet) war with your in-laws—and maybe also with your spouse—about these tangled issues, don't let it erode your marriage further.
